As we look toward the future of our sport, let us commit to doing the hard work where it belongs. Let us support aftercare through the organizations built for that purpose. Let us strengthen mental health resources through appropriate channels. Let us invest in safety and integrity through clear, accountable regulatory structures. And let us ensure that no entity, however well-intentioned, expands its footprint beyond what Congress authorized simply to gain favor or justify cost.

Racing deserves discipline. Horsemen and women deserve representation. And regulation deserves boundaries.

SINCERELY,
 ERIC J. HAMELBACK

The Sunland Park local Committee had their final meeting on Saturday. Several ideas for next year were tossed around with Management. We will keep you updated as to what's happening with Sunland through the rest of the year in this newsletter. See attached events on page six.

Safe travels to all the Horsemen moving into Sunray Park. Mondays are dark days, the condition book is online, and they are preparing for opening day April 10th, 2026.

No racing news today but page six gives current events happening at Zia Park in the next couple months.
