As of now the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals (the court that ruled that HISA's enforcement powers - meaning everything HIWU does plus any enforcement powers HISA has - like the crop rule are unconstitutional) has not issued the order to enforce their ruling. I'm told that a case will be filed in the next day or so asking the US Supreme Court to hear the issues on an emergency basis. It is believed that the Supreme Court will agree to hear the case on an emergency basis. At this point the only way this will ever be resolved is to have the Supreme Court decide. It is unsure if things will stay the way they are until the Supreme Court makes a decision or if HISA will be stripped of their enforcement powers until the Supreme Court rules. Predicting courts and judges is harder than predicting the weather. But without the Supreme Court making a decision on HISA the legal stuff will go on and on and of course the horsemen will be the ones hurt the most.

Meet Begins September 4th, 2026, and runs through October 25th, 2026.

Ruidoso will split evenly the purse money for all cancelled races. Rainbow Trials are this weekend.

Huge renovations planned for Sunland Park this year, which should result in a great 2027 race meet. Happenings at Sunland Park are attached.

Sunray Park has submitted proposed race dates for the 2027 live racing season and looks forward to welcoming live horse racing back to Farmington next spring, pending approval by the NMRC.

Zia Park is starting to post available positions for the 2026 race meet. Anyone looking for work needs to contact Kristy Cruce (575) 602-3467.
